P R E F A C E.

THE EDITOR begs Leave to make his most grateful Acknowledgments to the GENTLEMEN of the Law, and the Public in general; as by their kind Assistance and Patronage, he has experienced the most rapid and extensive Sale of every Edition of his much admired and very useful Publication, which sufficiently proves it to be of the greatest Utility, not only to every Practitioner, but also to those Persons who have Occasion to transact Business with them.

The many Additions and various Improvements in every past Edition, when compared with his first Attempt, is obvious to every one; and the great Assistance he constantly receives from every Part of the Kingdom, enables him still to improve upon a Plan of such universal acknowledged Utility.

Although no Industry, Trouble, or Expence, have been spared for these TWELVE YEARS past, to render this Work as useful and correct as possible, by the EDITOR's not only applying to most Attornies, &c. in Town and Country, but also by his constant Attendance at the King's-Bench Office, when most of the Gentlemen of the Law were renewing the Licences for themselves and Friends in the Country, for the ensuing Year; yet from the continual Variations occasioned by Deaths, Admittances, Partnerships, Change of Residence, Purchases, &c. he humbly solicits his Friends in general, and the Gentlemen of the Law in particular, to transmit to HIM or Mr. WHIELDON, such further Information as may supply the unavoidable Defects arising from such Fluctuations, that they may be inserted in their regular Order in the next Edition.

* * * The Editor will be much obliged to Gentlemen, when they send Corrections, to mention where the Person is removed from, to prevent their being inserted twice over.

THE Editor here I have to thank his most generous and liberal patron the Countess of the late, and now in possession, as by their kind assistance and patronage, the present edition of the most rapid and useful, and every edition of the most abundant and very useful, which thoroughly proves it to be of the greatest utility, not only to every individual, but also to those persons who have occasion to compare things with them.
The many additions and other improvements in every part of the work, which is now with its first edition, is shown to every one; and the great assistance he constantly receives from every part of the Kingdom, enables him to improve upon a Plan of which he has never been without.

1791 2

Although no new edition of the work has been published since the first, it is a good one to render the work as useful and complete as possible, by the addition of not only a new edition of the work, but also of the new and complete edition of the work, which is now in the hands of the public, and which will be of the greatest use to every individual, and to those persons who have occasion to compare things with them.
The many additions and other improvements in every part of the work, which is now with its first edition, is shown to every one; and the great
assistance he constantly receives from every part of the Kingdom, enables him to improve upon a Plan of which he has never been without.

COURT of MARSHALSEA in Southwark,

The COURT of the KING's Palace at Westminster.

(Sitting in the Court-house in Southwark every Friday.)

THE Marshalsea is an ancient Court of Record, to determine Suits between those that are of the King's-house, and others within the Verge.

The Judges of the Court are, the Stewards and Knight Marshal of the King's-house for the Time being, who have Cognizance of all Manner of Pleas of Trespas, committed within the Verge of the same House, so as either Party be of the same House; and other Actions personal, wherein both Parties are the King's Servants; and this is the proper Jurisdiction of the Marshalsea Court.

But the Curia Patila, or Court of the Palace, was erected by King Charles I. and made a Court of Record, called the Court of the King's Palace at Westminster, for Trial of all personal Actions, the Liberty whereof extendeth itself 12 Miles round Whitehall, into Middlesex, Essex, Surrey and Kent, (the City of Lond. excepted) which Jurisdiction was confirmed by Cha. II.

The leading Process, which may be had at any of the Offices in Clifford's-inn, is by Capias or Attachment, which is served upon the Defendant by one of the Officers, who taketh Bond with two Sureties, for the Defendant's Appearance at the next Court, as will be responsible for.

Defendant must appear by Attorney, at the Return of the Writ, and put in Bail by the Wednesday following; which, if he neglects, the Plaintiff may have the Bond taken for Defendant's Appearance, assigned over to his Use.

Next Court after the Bail is taken, the Plaintiff declares, wherein he sets forth the Cause of Action, and proceeds to Issue and Trial by a Jury, in four or five Court Days; so that their Proceedings are quick and speedy, unless an Habeas Corpus cum Causa carry away the Plaint into a superior Court at Westminster, but then the Debt must be above 5*l.* if such Debt be under 10*l.* it cannot be allowed, until Bail be put in before a Judge of this Court.

In this Court are held Pleas of all Manner of personal Actions whatsoever, as Debt, Trespass, Battery, Trover, and all Actions on the Case, &c.

HILARY TERM, 1787. (B. R.)

Return Days on Bills of MIDDLESEX, LATITATE, and ATTACHMENT OF PRIVILEGE.

There are four Terms in the Year, viz. HILARY, EASTER, TRINITY; and MICHAELMAS. The first and last are unvariable, and being fixed Terms, constantly fall on the same Days; the Second and Third are moveable, consequently uncertain when they commence and end; and as the Second is governed by the Time when Easter Day happens, so the Third is by Corpus Christi Day. Two uncertain moveable Feasts, Hilary and Trinity, are issuable Terms, and in them Issues are made up, and Records passed for Trials at the ASSIZES, respectively following those Terms.

HILARY TERM begins on the 23d of January, and is always that Day Eight Weeks on which MICHAELMAS TERM ended. Its Essoign is the 20th of January; and this TERM ends the 12th of February (if not Sunday) if so, then the next Day, being always the same Day of the Week on which MICHAELMAS TERM begins.

N. B. These distances are measured from one specific point of ground to another as above; but upon a question, there will be added the call of the coach, together with any other necessary departure out of the right line.

, The coachman has his option to be paid either by the hour or distance.

Coachmen plying for hire, shall be obliged, on every day of the week, at seasonable times, to go any where within ten miles from the city of London or Westminster; and plying for hire, without a cheque string or wire, placed in a proper part of his coach, shall forfeit 5s.

If any licenced coachman shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his hire than according to the above rates, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 3l. nor under 10s. and on misbehaviour, by abusive language, the commissioners may revoke his licence, or inflict a penalty not exceeding 3l. to the poor; and on non-payment, he shall be committed to a house of correction, and be kept to hard labour for thirty days.

If any person shall refuse to pay, or shall deface any coach, any justice may grant his warrant to bring him before him; and on proof upon oath, may award satisfaction to the party, and on refusal to pay, may bind him over to the next sessions, who may determine the same.

Rents and penalties to be levied by distress; and in default of distress, to be imprisoned till paid: and if any rent shall be unpaid for fourteen days, the commissioners may withdraw the licence.
